WHAT AUTHORS SAY

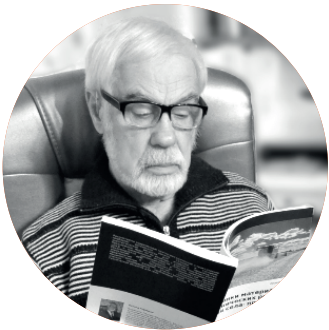

Professor Betty Mc Donald

I have published with other well recognized publishers. I can tell that you have a much faster turnaround time and your ways of operation appear to be efficient. In fact, getting in contact with you while in Germany has strengthened my confidence in you.

Dr. Hans-Rudolf Weiss

I was surprised at the smooth cooperation on my first book and I can say that I am very pleased with my consultant. Besides, my book is now available worldwide and can also be ordered via Amazon America.

Leonid Kormakow

It was a very productive cooperation. To every question that arose I received a quick, concise and informative answer, and the monograph was published in very short time. I am convinced you are is a publishing house one can trust.

Dr. James Ngugi Njuguna

Working with you has been quite a pleasant and resourceful experience. I look forward to many readers buying my book to benefit from the new knowledge contained therein. Thank you once again.

In a word being an entrepreneur in my sense means: A life sentence. But I mean it in the exact opposite way – that is to say, being able to decide freely all lifelong and thereby bringing my entrepreneurial ideas to life. That began in my youthful years with the foundation of my very first company and is set to accompany me through to old age. As it happens, I'm anything but a typical publisher who is utterly fond of his published titles. Books, for me, are simply products that generate a great deal of enthusiasm and which can be marketed in every possible place. So came our international book business to light a few years ago – certainly not always very conformist, but always a nose length ahead of others. My fellow German from the self-declared land of poets, philosophers and books often found it hard to understand, but never did that obstruct the momentum of my entrepreneurship.
